New England Tribute to Chaplains—In August at the invitation of the Provincial, 45 Jesuit Chaplains in uniform assembled at Weston College. Many were newly returned from service, several were still retained in the service. The Provincial congratulated them on the noble service they had rendered to God and country and for the honor they had brought to the Society and to the New England Province. Noting that not a man had been lost, he gave thanks to God who had preserved them amid perils of land, sea and air.
